

The Seattle/King County Coalition on Homelessness (SKCCH) invites King County service providers to a

FREE Training (registration required*)

Advocating for students who are homeless: What you need to know for the new school year.

Do you work with homeless children, youth, and families?

- Learn how to help them get the school services & supports they may need.
- Help make connections that support kids and families!

Thursday, August 19, 2010 10:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Catholic Community Services Cafeteria

100 - 23rd Ave. South @ Yesler Way Seattle, WA 98144

(Entrance is off of 23rd Ave. So.; park on the street)

(Note: Training follows the SKCCH August General Meeting from 9-10am at the same location.)

 Space is limited: Reserve your space ASAP!

R.S.V.P. to Virginia (virginia@homelessinfo.org or 206-357-3149.

McKinney Vento 101: Under the federal McKinney Vento Act, students who are homeless have rights, and schools have responsibilities. How does this play out in your district? How can you advocate effectively?

- We will discuss case studies related to enrollment, transportation, school meals, etc., and address strategies for helping children, youth, and parents access school supports.
- Presenters: Staff from the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI), attorneys from Columbia Legal Services, and family service providers from SKCCH.

The Seattle/King County Coalition on Homelessness (SKCCH) works collaboratively to ensure the safety and survival of people who are homeless, and to end the crisis of homelessness in our region.

www.homelessinfo.org